Math 241 - Calculus I (4)
ALEKS Prep for Calculus with Limits

Course Description: Algebra review. Precalculus review, functions with special attention to polynomial, rational, exponential and logarithmic functions, composed and inverse functions, techniques of graphing. Trigonometry review, trigonometric functions and identities, graphs of trigonometric functions, inverse trigonometric functions. Select topics.

Course Format: The course is entirely online and students are expected to complete the intermediate objective by the scheduled deadlines on their own time, irrespective of the coursework in Math 241.

Required Material: Access to ALEKS Prep for Calculus with Limits. To set up access go to http://www.aleks.com. Click on “SIGN UP NOW!”. Enter the course code PEXDT-CKHAQ. The instructor listed is Dr. Dovermann. The required fee of $30 will grant access for 6 weeks. You may use the grace period code BFDCB-CDDDE-6F05E-67D19 to defer paying the license fee for two weeks.