Here are few websites that might be useful:

- <http://afceahieducationfoundation.org/> this is for STEM scholarships and paid for by AFCEA (Armed Forces Communication & Electronics Association)
- AFCEA Hawaii – see above. They have a monthly luncheon where they showcase an exemplary Hawaii high school student in STEM. They are ALWAYS looking for people. You can fill out a nomination here <https://afcea-hawaii.org/award-nominations/>
- CIO Council of Honolulu – no website as of yet. The point of contact for this is Alan Ito Alan.ito@hawaiipacifichealth.org
- FLEF – Federal Law Enforcement Foundation – this is the FBI community outreach – they work with high schools and do mock interviews, shark tank events, and donate lots of supplies. Point of contact is Joy VanDerVoort Josephine.VanDerVoort@ic.fbi.gov
- Chamber of Commerce Military Affairs Committee Quality of Life Committee – is helpful in replicating the transaction center concept I was speaking about. Point of contact is Terry George tgeorge@castlefoundation.org.
