President's Message

Stacie Kaichi-Imamura, 2017 – 2018 HCTM President

Aloha HCTM members,

I hope that you had a fabulous first quarter as we jump right into the second quarter.

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to be your new HCTM president. This year is especially exciting because all of the HCTM executive board positions have been filled!

Your executive board has been working hard with planning the annual conference. This year's conference theme is "Teaching for Understanding." The conference will take place at Moanalua High School on Saturday, January 27, 2018 from 8:30am-3:00pm. Our keynote speaker is Dr. Barbara Dougherty, the current director of the University of Hawaii's Curriculum Research Development Group (CRDG). Dr. Dougherty's keynote will focus on her "12 Math Rules that Expire" articles in the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics publications and her recent work with struggling learners. Breakout session descriptions will be forthcoming. We look forward to seeing all of you at the conference! Early registration is now open.

If you are interested in helping at the conference, please email me or Conference Chair, Lani Arakaki.

Have a great school year!

Mahalo,

Stacie

Free TI Technology Workshop

Join us for Back-to-School Workshops on Saturday, Nov. 18th from 9:00 – 12:30 at Kapolei High School, Room J104 (near the gym). Ideas and hands-on activities using Texas Instruments Technology you have, or would like to have, for teaching mathematics in your classroom will be presented and shared.

Some comments from past participants:

Excellent workshop - I really enjoyed it.

Thank you very much! It was well worth the drive!

The lessons taught are very helpful in making the same lessons I teach more engaging.

Thank you so much for inviting us! We had a great time!

Regardless if you have been using TI Handheld Technology for years or are a new user, chances are there are some handy tips and tricks that can be added to your technology toolkit.

This is also a good time to have your questions addressed as well. In order to address yours and your students' needs, please complete the short survey using the link below to indicate your interest in attending the workshop.

Please share this flyer with your colleagues or display at your school for others to read. Come and engage in

- Exploring mathematical relationships and concepts to make connections across multiple representations
- Activities and lessons to enhance content knowledge and instruction
- Exploring STEM resources available for middle grades through high school
- Integrating technology for tough to teach topics in algebra
- Strategies for making mathematics more accessible for all students

Instructors: Michael Long and Judith Olson
